PART II OF INFORMATIONAL SESSIONS ON VOTER ID BILL

Sup. Harris and National Coalition of 100 Black Women Milwaukee Chapter continue series of events

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisor Nikiya Harris and the National Coalition of 100 Black Women Milwaukee Chapter are inviting all Milwaukee County residents to attend the second of three Informational Sessions on the importance of preserving the right to vote.

Panelists in the first session provided insight and advice on Governor Walker's proposed Voter ID Bill and offered their advice on how the bill would impact Milwaukee County residents. Part II will focus on elderly, disabled, veterans, college students and minority groups.

"We are continuing to discuss the impacts this Voter ID bill would have on our neighbors," Supervisor Harris added. "This series of community events are aimed at educating the public and stopping this assault on democracy."

Informational Session on Voter ID - Part II

5:30 p.m. – 7:30 p.m., Monday, May 2, 2011
